

Hair's to you

American Crew knows how to mould a quiff, and last Tuesday at the Peninsula in Docklands, hairstylists proved it. Now in its seventh year, the American Crew face-off showcases talented hairstylists nationally. Guests were treated to fashion parades by Arthur Galan and more than 700 black-and-white portraits highlighting men's hair styles. Not surprisingly, everyone let their hair down and enjoyed one hell of a party.
